Casual Tournament

Bring your favourite Spearhead army for a day of casual gaming in a friendly atmosphere! This event is ideal for new players and players who enjoy a less competitive gaming environment.

Our casual events are about embracing the entire hobby, so players will score points across 3 categories: game wins, sportsmanship and miniature painting (the last 2 will be voted on by all players).

Rules

Rules

This tournament uses the following rules sources:

- Age of Sigmar: City of Ash
- Age of Sigmar Rules Update*

The latest version on the Warhammer Community website will be used.*

If insufficient City of Ash sets are available then some games may be played using older Spearhead sets and their respective rules.

Judges

A member of staff will be nominated as Judge. If players are unable to determine or agree on a ruling then the event judge will make a final decision on how any given rule is to be interpreted.

Please note that the Judge may be participating in the tournament.

Painting & Modelling

Painting Requirement:

Models do not have to be fully painted for this event.

All unpainted models must be primed in the same colour.

Proxies:

Players may field units that do not match those found in a Spearhead boxset so long as the models used clearly represent the same unit.

For example, a squad of Liberators could be replaced with a squad of Sequitors, so long as one of the miniatures in the squad is equipped with a two-handed weapon to represent the Grandhammer. Note that the unit must use the original Spearhead Warscrolls regardless of the miniatures used.

If in doubt, please ask in advance at: www.blackdragongames.co.uk/contact

Event Scoring

Players will score points based on their rank in the following 3 categories:

- Game wins
- Painting (as voted by all players)
- Sportsmanship (as voted by opponents)

Players' final tournament placement will be determined by the total of their scores across all 3 categories.
